SCHOENHERR CEE ESSAY COMPETITION

Want to measure yourself with the best young legal brains from across Central and Eastern Europe?

Law students and recent graduates from Romania, Serbia, Ukraine, Hungary and Bulgaria are invited to participate in the Schoenherr CEE Essay Competition by writing an original essay on a "hot topic" in commercial law.

The most outstanding country contribution will be elected by a local jury and the winner will be invited to the final round in Austria. Country finalists will get the chance to contest their essays and to showcase their legal knowledge and presentation skills in front of a jury of renowned legal professionals in Vienna. The final winner will be awarded by a prize money of EUR 5.000.

Please send in your contribution + a short CV via e-mail to sceec@schoenherr.at by September 30th, 2008. Papers will be judged on originality, content, writing style and presentation of arguments. Eligible papers have to follow our publishing guidelines and not exceed 5 Pages (excluding cover sheet and references). Each paper has to start with an abstract and has to be written in English. Students need to be prepared to discuss their paper on an academic level. Details and publishing guidelines: www.schoenherr.at/sceec
